

Bonjour!

It is the month of November! Happy Thanksgiving.

In kindergarten, we are learning our vegetables with a song about pizza and our fruit with our song about apples, pears, and peaches. We are also learning about fish and the verb to eat with a song about a little fish.

The first graders are learning their family members like brother, sister, mother, father, grandfather, grandmother and their vocabulary for food including breakfast, lunch and dinner. They will be able to say “I would like...” to express what they would like to eat. We are also reading the story “Little Red Riding Hood” and we are learning about the food she brings to her sick grandmother. We are also practicing body parts by saying “What big eyes you have!” and “What big ears you have!”

The second graders are learning to answer questions such as “What do you want?” and “What are you doing?” We are also combining this with our action verbs (to eat, to drink, to order, to desire, to want) and food. Finally, we will read “The Hungry Caterpillar.”
